How long is this film: 1 hour 33 minutes

What this film is about:

A rebellious son returns to the pub his father and brother have been running for many years, only to find them in debt and about to be thrown out of their home unless they can work together and find a way to make money quickly!

Our favourite characters and parts:

Mick Harley, and his two sons Jake Harley and Cal Harley. Romy, Abi and all the people who live in the village!

A real feel good film that made everyone laugh and enjoy themselves throughout. The group especially enjoyed the fun moments like riding horses, the little girl helping make the beer, and the man talking to the bees! They also liked the disco style Morris dancing and thought the dad was very funny. The ending, with everyone singing together in the pub, was a highlight for the whole group.

Our opinion about this film:

A very heart warming feel good family film!
