What this film is about:

Tom moves to Argentina to teach English. He rescues a Penguin covered in oil and ends up caring for it. The Penguin becomes a school favourite and even helps the students improve their English. Based on a true story, it is set in Argentina, when the military were in charge.

Our favourite characters and parts:

The Penguin! Tom, Maria, Sofia, and the Headmaster. Everyone loved the Penguin. One person said the most best and happy part is that the English teacher and the Penguin form a friendship. Someone said they liked the music. Another person said they liked when the Penguin was in the classroom with the children. And when the Penguin was following the man it was funny. And when he was swimming in the pool. Some people said they found it sad but others said it wasn't sad, it was funny.
