Film watched:

What's Love Got To Do With It?

How long is this film: 1 hour 30 minutes

What this film is about:

A young female documentary writer decides to make a film about her neighbour and childhood friend having an arranged marriage as he and his family follow Pakistani traditions. It follows him, his intended bride and his family and the making of the film and all the issues.

Our favourite characters and parts:

Kaz (bridegroom), Zoe (film maker), and her mum. Nan and the baby. Some favourite parts: when they got on the plane, the dancing at the wedding and a love story.

Our opinion about this film:

Very colourful, sometimes funny and thought provoking. Beautiful, good music and dancing. A very good love story.
